

ARE YOU A CAREGIVER FOR A VETERAN YOU LOVE?

If so, plan to attend a free workshop packed with tips on living better—designed for you and your loved one.

We salute you!

As more veterans in our area need full-time care, family caregivers need to understand their special needs, and how and when to ask for help. This workshop will give you resources for your caregiving journey, and a chance to meet other caregivers and build friendships.

Deborah Grassman, from Bay Pines VA Healthcare System, will share stories of healing for veterans' emotional, social, spiritual and moral wounds at the end of life, in “Wounded Warrior: Their Last Battle.” Other topics will include “Spiritual Issues at the End of Life,” “Social Service Resources for Veterans,” and “Caring for the Caregiver.”

You'll get a free breakfast and lunch and a chance to win door prizes. Exhibitors will offer information on products and services designed to help you.

Special thanks to Hardage-Giddens Funeral Homes and Cemeteries, a Dignity Memorial® Provider, and the National Order of Trench Rats Sector of Florida Hospital Fund for their generous support of this workshop.
